

PARADE WILL CLOSE FETE AT PARK VIEW

Speaker at Community Celebration Discusses Plans to Obtain Suffrage.

A community parade tonight will close the celebration at Park View, held the past week, in commemoration of the opening of the Park View School and the completion of the paving of Georgia avenue.

The formation of the parade and the line of march follow:

Place of formation—1, police, Warder street, front of school; 2, band, front steps school; 3, school, in building; 4, Girl Scouts, Newton (east); 5, Boy Scouts, Newton (west); 6, babies in carriages, Manor place; 7, church, Manor place; 8, ladies, Park road (east); 9, men, Park road (west); 10, business, Warder street (north from Otis place).

Line of march—South to Warder street to Irving; west on Irving to Georgia avenue, north on Georgia avenue to Rock Creek Church road; east on Rock Creek Church road to Warder; south on Warder to school building and disband.

Intimation that a crusade for suffrage in the District will begin in the near future was given by Edward F. Coladay, president of the Federation of Citizens' Associations, in an address on the fourth night of the celebration of the Park View citizens.

The next speaker was C. J. James, president of the Potomac Citizens' Association. He spoke on the evolution of the school from the log cabin to its present great proportions.

Much interest was evinced when J. C. Hoyle read a letter from E. J. Ward presenting John G. McGrath, a watch from the Park View citizens as a mark of appreciation of his work. Then Mr. Coladay presented "Park View's John G. McGrath," with a watch chain, on behalf of the Federation of Citizens' Associations.

Chorton Clark, chairman of the educational committee, spoke commending the work of the committee. President Evan H. Tucker, of the Northwest Citizens' Association; William McK. Clayton, president of the Brightwood Park Citizens' Association; and Charles Burr, president of the Anacostia Citizens' Association, made short addresses.

Maurice Fitzgerald and Mrs. A. B. Crane sang, the latter working the praises of Park View into an original parody on "The Little Grey Home in the West." A piano solo by Miss Zeida J. Miller, a solo by Mrs. Thomas A. Hurlish, a cornet solo by Lester Cranford, and selections by the Park View Band completed the musical program.

PRESIDENT'S PROCLAMATION FOR ARMENIANS

Whereas I have received from the Senate of the United States a Resolution, passed July 7 (calendar day, July 10), 1916, reading as follows:

Whereas the attention of the people of the United States has been directed to the helpless situation in which many of the Syrians in the Mt. Lebanon district have been placed, and that many thousands have perished from hunger and exposure; and

Whereas thousands of citizens of the United States in practically every State of the Union were either born in Syria or are the children of Syrians born in that country, and that thousands of American citizens are related by blood and affinity to many of the said suffering and helpless people; and

Whereas the people of the United States have demonstrated their sympathy for the suffering people on all sides in the great European war, having helped in a practical way the people of Belgium, Serbia, Ireland, Poland, and others, as becomes a nation which is neutral in this war and on friendly terms with all the belligerents; Therefore be it

Resolved, That, appreciating the sufferings of the Syrian people, it is suggested that the President of the United States set aside a day upon which a direct appeal to the sympathy of all American citizens shall be made and an opportunity shall be given for our public spirited people to contribute to a much-needed fund for the relief of the Syrian people.

And whereas a resolution was passed by the Congress of the United States on July 18, 1916, reading as follows:

Whereas in countries now engaged in war there are several hundreds of thousands of Armenians in need of food, clothing, and shelter; and

Whereas great numbers of them have been required by conditions growing out of the state of war to leave their homes and their property, deprived of an opportunity to make provision for their most elementary wants, causing starvation, disease, and untold suffering; and

Whereas the people of the United States of America have learned with sorrow of this terrible plight of great numbers of human beings and have most generously responded to the cry for help whenever such an appeal has reached them; Therefore be it

Resolved by the Senate (the House of Representatives concurring), That, in view of the misery, wretchedness, and hardships which these people are suffering, the President of the United States be respectfully asked to designate a day on which the citizens of this country may give expression to their sympathy by contributing to the funds now being raised for the relief of the Armenians in the belligerent countries.

And whereas I feel confident that the people of the United States will be moved to aid these peoples stricken by war, famine and disease;

Now, therefore, I, Woodrow Wilson, President of the United States, in compliance with the said suggestion of the Senate, and the said request of the Congress thereof; do appoint and proclaim Saturday, October 21, and Sunday, October 22, 1916, as joint days upon which the people of the United States may make such contributions as they feel disposed for the aid of the stricken Syrian and Armenian peoples.

Contributions may be addressed to the American Red Cross, Washington, D. C., which will care for their proper distribution.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done in the City of Washington this thirty-first day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixteen, and the Independence of the United States the one hundred and forty-first.

[SEAL] By the President: WOODROW WILSON.

ROBERT LANSING, Secretary of State.

"Girl," 68, Sees Sights.

ALLEN TOWN, Pa., Oct. 20.—Mrs. Matilda Martin, ninety-four, thinking a young girl ought to see something of the world, married her daughter, Matie, sixty-eight, to New York, where they both saw their first show.

Lonely, Get Married.

FLUSHING, L. I., Oct. 20.—The rain made Frank Walack and Edna Hoverson so lonesome that they decided to get married when they met by chance on the street. Thirty minutes later the deed was done.

SOCIETY WILL AID ARMENIAN RELIEF

Washington Women Receive Assignments for Collection of Funds Tomorrow.

A score of more of society girls and matrons of the Capital met at the home of the Misses Dorothea and Gwendolyn Denys, 1733 I street northwest, this morning to make final plans and receive booth assignments for the collection tomorrow of funds for the relief of exiled Armenians and Syrians in Asia Minor.

All of these young women will aid in the Washington campaign for funds to be made on the days set aside for such relief measures by President Wilson's proclamation.

The young women will be stationed in department stores, Federal department stores, and business houses to receive contributions. They will not, however, solicit funds.

Contributions must be voluntary, and to date many substantial checks have been received by the relief committee, of which Dr. M. M. Dolmage is chairman.

Syrian and Armenian boys and girls of Washington will be at most of the stations to ask funds for their stricken kin. Boy Scouts will act as escorts and guards.

In addition to those announced, the following young girls and matrons will assist in the work:

Miss Marie Peary, daughter of Admiral Peary; Miss Anne Hopkins, of 2128 Bancroft place; Elizabeth Campbell, 1741 N street; Miss Frances Brady, 1817 Vernon street; Miss Sarah

Dandruff Surely Destroys The Hair

Girls—if you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for it will starve your hair and ruin it if you don't.

It doesn't do much good to try to brush or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop, and your hair will look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and four ounces is all you will need, no matter how much dandruff you have. This simple remedy never fails.—Adv.

NEW AERO SQUADRONS ORGANIZED IN ARMY

Two Divisions Will Have 24 Twin-Motor Planes.

Organization of two new aero squadrons was announced by Col. George O. Squier, commanding the aviation section of the signal corps, today. The two squadrons will consist of twenty-four twin motor aeroplanes with motor cycles and extra parts for six months' service. There is only one aero squadron now in service.

The aviation section yesterday purchased seventy-five new school aeroplanes for use at San Diego, Chicago and Mineola, L. I. This brings recent purchases up to 200 machines. Plans are afoot for purchase of 100 hydro-aeroplanes for the army.

FILES ANSWER TO SUIT FOR DIVORCE

Arthur E. H. Middleton Denies Wife's Charges.

In his answer, filed through Attorney Crandal Mackey, Middleton denies the charges of cruelty and drunkenness made in his wife's suit.

RECORD ENLISTMENT MADE BY TROOP B

Twenty-three Out of Twenty-four Applicants Pass Physical Examination.

The men of B Troop, N. G. D. C., established a record in the matter of having men accepted for enlistment Wednesday night when twenty-three out of twenty-four passed the physical examination, according to Major L. H. Reichelderfer, examining physician. The result of the examination of the first group shows, Major Reichelderfer said, the caliber of the men who are interested in the organization of a cavalry squadron. Men who realize the results of right living are applying for enlistment, recruiting officers believe.

The roster of the business men's troop, as B Troop will be known, is nearly completed, eighty-six names appearing on the rolls. Sixty-eight is the minimum number of men required for a troop, but in case an unexpectedly large number of men fail to pass the physical examination, recruiting officers will continue to sign more men for the outfit.
